Abuja Municipal Area Council (AMAC)

Abuja Federal Capital Territory (FCT) is Nigeria’s first planned city and became the capital in 1991. It is the 5th most populated city and the hub for governance.

Abuja Municipal Area Council is one of the six local governments in the FCT.

Projected population growth for AMAC

- Approximately 1.96 million in 2021
- Approximately 2.8 million in 2030

The population of AMAC

- 29% of the population is between 15 and 34 years old
- 49% female

Various indigenous groups call Abuja home, including Bassa, Gade, Gbagyi and Gwandara.

AMAC’s top modes of transport

- Walking
- Public Transport
- Motorcycling
- Private Transport

AMAC’s climate and altitude

- Above sea level: 360m
- Temperatures are typically high, ranging between 25.8°C and 30.2°C

Main economic activities

- Industry and Manufacturing: 18%
- Agriculture: 10%
- Services – Financial, Hospitality, and Transport: 71%

Abuja Municipal Area Council is one of the six local governments in the FCT.

Abuja Federal Capital Territory (FCT) is Nigeria’s first planned city and became the capital in 1991. It is the 5th most populated city and the hub for governance.